

Equine Registries – Fell Pony Cross Farm/Herd Prefix Application Form

You may apply for assignment to reserve a unique Farm/Herd prefix name to be used in the naming of your equines. This Farm/Herd prefix name Form can be completed and submitted along with the one-time filing fee of $ 75.00 (seventy-five US Dollars). Assignment of approved Farm/Herd Prefix names within Equine Registries reserves and protects your Farm/Herd Prefix name within the Equine Registries Stud Books, so that no one else may use your assigned and reserved Farm/Herd Prefix name. This assignment does not cover any copyright issues outside of Equine Registries. The Equine Registries Farm/Herd prefix name must meet the following requirements:

Examples of use of Farm Herd Name / Farm Herd Prefix: TWIN ELM FARM or TEF
Twin Elm Farm Rosie Girl or TEF Rosie Girl

1. A Farm/Herd prefix name is recognized as the same, as the Herd prefix.
2. Farm/Herd prefix names are limited to letters. Please be advised and remember that on equine registration applications there are 34 characters available for naming including spaces, please factor in to include your Farm/Herd name within those 34 characters.
3. An Equine Registries Farm/Herd Prefix Name that is no longer being used by its assigned Owner, may be purchased by submitting a completed Equine Registries Farm/Herd Prefix Name Transfer Form and appropriate fee to the Equine Registries Office.
